Women to Register—Women of Weber county who wish to register for national service will have today as their last chance of filling out the registration blanks, according to Mrs. H. H. Spencer, county chairman. There will be two downtown booths for registration, one at Wright's store in charge of Mrs. Chris Fitzgerald, and the other at Burt's store with Mrs. Edward Bichel in charge. About 1,000 women have registered to date in the city and county, but this number is considered far too small in face of the population. The registration is to allow the government to ascertain the number of women whom it can call on for assistance during the "emergency."

Murderer Caught—Jasper Bernardo, suspected of the killing of Enoch Nickervich at Bingham Thursday, was arrested yesterday afternoon in Salt Lake. Deputies of the Salt Lake sheriff's office came to Ogden yesterday following information they received that Bernardo had come to this city. Bernardo is said to have killed Nickervich because the latter alienated his wife's affections. Nickervich was killed by a blow from a heavy instrument, thought to be a sledge hammer, and had been dead for about ten hours when found.

his son, Lloyd Allen Fitzgerald, from Camp Kearny, Cal., where the young man is stationed, which qualifies somewhat a previous letter written by the young soldier. In a former letter Mr. Fitzgerald told of an epidemic of spinal meningitis which had broken out in the camp. In the letter received last he says that the report was unfounded and that he told of it after hearing a rumor circulated by some of the soldiers. The report that there had been spinal meningitis in the camp was denied, he said.

FOOTBALL TEAM OF THE JORDAN HIGH FAILS TO APPEAR

The football game scheduled between Ogden high school and Jordan high school for 2:30 this afternoon at Glenwood park had not started at 3:30 because the members of the visiting team had not put in an appearance. There was a small crowd of rooters in the bleachers, impatient for the game to start and the Jordan supporters were at the gate, awaiting the appearance of their team.

Yesterday a 15-minute assembly was held at the high school, at which rousing talks were made by Professors Beinap and Dunaway and several of the players. Each speech was greeted with loud applause. At the conclusion of the speechmaking, a short business meeting was held to elect a cheer leader and Lewis Wallace was chosen for the honor.

Alvin McCulloch, present yell master, then took the meeting in charge and rehearsed the student body in yells and cheers.

The line-up for the Ogden team in the game today is as follows: Bagley, center; Boyle and Boistad, guards; McIntyre and Clark, tackles; M. Conroy and Irwin, ends; V. Conroy, quarterback; Miller, fullback; De Julien and Richards, halfbacks.

AMENDED ANSWER IN DAMAGE SUIT

An amended answer has been filed in the district court in the case of William P. Hales against the Ogden Packing & Provision company, in which the plaintiff answers the company's answer to his original complaint. He sets forth further reason why he should be granted the $10,000 damages asked for injuries received when he fell from the third floor of a building at the plant down an elevator shaft for a distance of 30 feet. The accident occurred January 12, 1917, as Hales was pushing a truck on to what he thought was the elevator at the third floor. In his answer he says that the company allowed the elevator to be taken from the third floor without closing the elevator door and that he pushed the truck into it because the place was poorly lighted and he could not see his way properly. He says that he was an able-bodied man, capable of earning $5 per day, and that the accident has permanently incapacitated him, leaving him with a left shoulder, left arm, left leg and left hand were injured. Hales is 30 years of age.

HEALTH REPORT

Although the days have been colder, on an average, this week, than they were last week, it has not been so cold at night, the lowest temperature recorded being 23 degrees on Tuesday night. The highest was 48 degrees on Monday. Thursday there was two degrees difference between the highest and lowest temperatures—maximum 33, minimum 31.

There were sixteen cases of contagious diseases placed in quarantine during the week. Twelve of these are chickenpox, which disease is slightly on the increase. There were also three cases of scarlet fever and one of diphtheria.

The births exceeded the deaths by thirteen, there being twenty-three of the former and ten of the latter.

PLAN FOR POOLING ENTIRE RAILWAY EQUIPMENT AND TRAFFIC OF UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—A plan for pooling the entire railway equipment and traffic of the United States was taken up at a conference today between government officials and railroad heads. Congestion has reached a stage, it is realized, where radical measures must be put into force if the country's traffic is to be moved.

The conference was attended by members of the railroad war board, Robert S. Lovett, government director of priority of transportation, Fuel Administrator Garfield, Food Administrator Hoover, Chairman Hurley of the shipping board and others.

Although the railroads are handling a much larger volume of freight and passenger traffic than they have ever moved before, railroad officials admit that unless something is done immediately, the lines cannot carry all that is offered by the public for transportation.

Joint operations of the roads by the railroad war board has helped the situation but all realize that more must be done if the problem is to be solved. Even the pooling of the tracks and equipment will not be enough, some railroad heads believe, and they have presented to the government a list of more than 500 commodities for which they ask that transportation be denied on the ground that their movement is not essential to the conduct of the war.

Railway congestion is particularly marked in the east, where most of the big industrial plants engaged in war work are located, and if a pooling plan is put into operation it may be applied at first only to eastern roads.

Admiral Perry Predicts German Attack on Some of Atlantic Cities Soon.

IDEA NO SECRET
Will Be as Startling as When the U-53 Put Into Newport.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—German attacks in the near future on American coast cities were predicted today by Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary in an address here before a large gathering of newly enfranchised women on the topic of aerial defense.

"I speak of no secret," he said, "and I am giving no information that has not already been known or discussed when I say that a blow will be struck on some one or more of our Atlantic coast cities by Germany, within a probably near future, and when it comes it will come with the same startling effect as when the U-53 put into Newport—out of a blue sky."

Y.M.C.A. PROVIDES MOVIES FOR MEN

Complete Motion Picture Outfit to Be Stationed in Nearly Every Camp for Soldiers and Sailors.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Free motion picture shows are being given each night to the American soldiers and sailors in France. The Army and Navy Young Men's Christian association has made arrangements to install a complete motion picture outfit in every camp and seaport in which more than 1,000 soldiers or sailors are stationed.

Twelve shows are already doing business in the field and seven more are ready for action. Before winter sets in the Young Men's Christian association hopes to have one hundred shows in operation in as many different localities and to increase this number to three hundred by spring.

If all the men who want to see the pictures are unable to view the first performance, a second one is given. The shows continue from 8 until 10 o'clock each night.

French companies have been supplying the films for the shows thus far. Although most of the films were made in America and show well-known American screen artists, the American troops expressed disapproval of the French titles and captions and "all American" films have been ordered. An arrangement has been made with the British Young Men's Christian association whereby films are exchanged between the two associations. Most of the films supplied by the British to date have been made by the British and have fifty shows in operation along the front.

Walter H. Trumbull, Jr., former Harvard varsity football captain and now a Y. M. C. A. secretary, is in charge of the motion picture work for the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. American authorities in France as well as the French government have co-operated in making these shows possible and it is believed that they will do much toward relieving the monotony of the soldier's surroundings during the long winter nights in camp.

LATINS FIGHTING SINGLE-HANDED

Allied Reinforcements Have Not Arrived and Heroic Bravery May Reach Limit.

BATTLE NEARS CLIMAX
Enemy Throwing Full Force Against Italians Who Are Holding Out.

ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS IN NORTHERN ITALY, Nov. 23.—In fact it is not denied that there is a limit to human endurance in these circumstances and that the Italian troops which are fighting with such heroic bravery may have to fall back to more secure positions, but the possibility of this is diminishing with every hour that the resistance continues. Reinforcements might yet save the day, but it should be understood that the Italians are fighting their battles single-handed and that the allied reinforcements are not yet represented anywhere on the fighting lines.

The mountain battle, which is now nearing its highest stage, is one of three battles which are going on simultaneously with various degrees of intensity. These are, first, the battle of the Piave river, which is the extreme right of the Italian line; second, the battle of the Asiago plateau, which is the extreme left, and third, the battle of Grappa mountain, which is the center.

It is through the center that the enemy is throwing his full force. The Piave line has become so solid that some are led to believe that the enemy is not pushing things there any further, possibly planning to bring up his heavy guns beyond the Tagliamento to renew his efforts in the spring. No less an authority than Napoleon regarded the Piave as good for only temporary purposes and not a safe line of resistance for permanent operation. If the same view were held valid now both the eastern and northern Italian positions would ultimately have to be shifted greatly as the present operations develop.

The second Italian army, which was hurled back in the debacle when the great offensive began just a month ago, has begun to redeem itself. Some of its units have been brought into the thick of the fighting at Grappa and have done splendid service.

MEREL DROPPED IN.
"I have called again, sir," said the collector.
"I suppose you want money?" snapped the man.
"No, I merely dropped in out of curiosity to learn just what your reason would be this time for not paying this bill."—Detroit Free Press.

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Monday

Some specially attractive selling events are to be in progress here Monday. We give you here mention of the most important ones. Keep your eye on our windows—they tell the daily story of the store's best offerings.

Blue and White Granitware . . . 85c

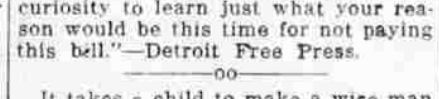

On sale at nine in the morning—see the items in the windows Sunday. Blue and white granitware in the large pieces worth to $2. All first quality—no seconds—17-quart dish pans—14-quart pails—large Berlin kettles—double boilers—tea and coffee pots. On sale in the Basement—choice 85c

Women's Shoes . . . $1.45

Two hundred pairs of women's shoes—odds and ends from the past month's selling—shoes from the main floor shoe store—all taken now into the Basement where they are to be placed on the tables for quick and complete clearance.

The sizes are 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 only. A good many are actual $5 values. If you can wear any of the sizes mentioned, here's an opportunity you cannot afford to miss.

Button and lace styles—all good shapes 85c

Thanksgiving Sales Table Linens and China

You will notice that most of the items for Monday's selling are those which will have to do with preparation of the Thanksgiving Table.

The Linens

This will be the last really important linen sale of the year—and the prospect for another of equal importance is not at all likely.

Our New York representatives inform us that the linen market is practically exhausted—the merchandise offered here now is that which we bought a year ago. Monday and week you may buy linens here at prices which positively will not be possible for another year at the very least.

Pure linens—union linens and mercerized cotton. By the yard or in the pattern pieces. Prices range from 35c a yard upward.

The China

Dinnerware in new patterns—complete stocks in which all of the pieces in each pattern are represented. Some of the best patterns produced by American makers we control.

You may buy these handsome dishes in complete sets or you may buy only the pieces needed. And the present prices are lowered to provide the new dinnerware for the Thanksgiving Table.

Blue Bird Set Dishes . . . $2.95

A dainty little breakfast set—a clean white china decorated with two blue birds and blue circle. Makes a very pleasing breakfast set. The set consists of six breakfast plates—six bread and butter plates—six fruit dishes—six cups and saucers and one platter. Easily worth $5 in the regular way. A limited number of sets still here $2.95
